Kick Ass Inbound Sales Consultant

Who Are We?

We are a team of unicorns searching for new additions. We are a super cool printing company that works hard to raise the bar of the step and repeat backdrop market! We provide all types of custom printed marketing products to our customers but step and repeats are our bread and butter. They are the backdrop to people's life highlight reel. When you see a logo backdrop behind the Grey Cup winners - We supply it! When Disney calls and they have a red carpet premiere in Toronto - We supply it! The Juno Awards - We supply it! Our passion for events lies is the same as our love for Jimmy Kimmel vs. Justin Timberlake in a lip sync battle and Santa's love for milk and cookies. We are always learning, have big goals, and expect a lot from our team but we support each other and have a great time doing it! Does this sound as awesome to you as it does to us?

What we require from you:

- Field sales inquiries from web, email and phone
- Some techy skills
- Enjoy working in a young, fast paced environment
- Handle different challenges everyday
- May include occasional travel
- Work with clients from across Canada and the U.S. on pretty cool event projects
- Attention to Detail

Personality Traits

- Team oriented
- Flexible
- Driven
- Fun-loving

We are in the small town of Bloomfield ON in beautiful Prince Edward County. The area is filled with lots of wine, craft beer and cider, beaches, art, and hiking! We like to have a work hard play harder mentality, and this is an excellent place for that! So tell us something about yourself. We are looking for candidates that will excel in our culture but also bring the technical skills that we require. Be creative - We thrive on it!

Kick Ass Web Designer

Who Are We?

We are a team of handpicked unicorns. We compete in the super cool industry of step and repeats! What are step and repeats (Ok we do more too, but this is our bread and butter), they are the backdrop to people's life highlight reel. For example, when you see a logo backdrop behind the grey cup winners - we supply it! When Disney calls and they have a red carpet premiere in Toronto - we supply it! The Juno awards - we supply it! Our passion for events lies somewhere between Jimmy Kimmel vs. Justin Timberlake in a lip sync battle and Santa's love for milk and cookies... We have JDP (Jour Du Potate) every Thursday. We are forever learners, we have big goals, and expect a lot from our team but we support each other and have a great time doing it! Does this sound as awesome to you as it does to us?

What we require from you

Technical Skills

- Wordpress web design experience
- Ability to get into the zone
- PHP
- HTML
- Adobe Suite
- If you know about TTFP's or want to learn - let's talk!
- Google Analytics & Adwords knowledge is a serious plus!

Personality Traits

- Team oriented
- Flexible
- Driven
- fun-loving

While we are in the small town of Bloomfield ON, we are in the beautiful PEC (Prince Edward County) lots of wine, craft beer, cider, beaches, art, and hiking! We most definitely embody a work hard play harder mentality. So tell us something about you, you have to fit both technical skills and our culture. Be creative - we love it!
